This year, BAAFF will present twelve film presentations that include both live and recorded filmmaker Q&A's as well as five Shorts programs which includes the popular Queer & Here series. The features program includes opener Tom Huang's Dealing with Dad with Huang in attendance for an in-person Q&A at the Brattle Theatre,

Deann Borshay Liem's moving documentary feature Crossings, the four shorts film Centerpiece program "Boston Chinatown Activism" featuring films Arts, Community & Boston Chinatown; Dear Corky; Convergent Waves: Boston; and Wise Words from an Old Friend and closing night film Bad Axe—which will also have a screening in Lowell, MA on Saturday, October 22 as part of the inaugural Lowell Asian American Film Festival, with filmmaker Daid Siev and his parents.

The five shorts programs for the festival are "Here I Am", "Queer & Here", "Looking Back, Moving Forward", "After Dark", and "Family Ties".

"This year's festival reflects our adaptation to a COVID world, with offerings both in-person and online, and themes reflective of the diversity of Asian American experiences today," says BAAFF director Susan Chinsen. "We are excited to open with humor and heart in Dealing With Dad and Reyna, and close with a moving time capsule of life during COVID in Bad Axe."

Tickets range from $10-$15 for each feature film or shorts program and may be purchased 24/7 at ArtsEmerson.org, or by calling 617-824-8400 (Tue-Sat from 12:00PM ET - 6:00PM ET). The Paramount Center Box Office (559 Washington Street, Boston) is open for walk-up service Thu-Sat from Noon - 6:00 PM ET. (Tickets for Opening Night are $15 and can be purchased HERE).

BAAFF FESTIVAL SCHEDULE – FEATURE FILMS

Dealing with Dad (preceded by Reyna)

OPENING NIGHT FILM - Narrative

Directed by Tom Huang

$15 | 106 minutes

Thursday, October 20 at 7:00PM ET

at the Brattle Theatre

LIVE Q&A with filmmaker Tom Huang

Synopsis: MARGARET CHANG is rocked from her perfect alpha-mom-corporate-manager life when she has to go back to her hometown to deal with her overbearing dad, JIALUO. Her dad is kind of an outspoken jerk but is now despondent and won't leave the house. Since she can't deal with her parents by herself, she drags along her older sad sack brother, ROY to help her. When they arrive to their childhood home, they discover that their mom SOPHIE (equally overbearing) and youngest angry comic book nerd brother LARRY (still living with parents) are happy with this situation... as it turns out, their dad is much more pleasant depressed than well. The siblings struggle to deal with his depression, and wonder if it's even worth getting him better. In the meantime, they reconnect as a family by bickering and reminiscing about the bad times with Dad, discovering that their familial bond is stronger than they ever realized.

Reyna

Animated

Directed by Jenielle Ramos Salarda

5 minutes

Synopsis: Reyna is a 2D animated short film about Vina, this year's lead Queen in the Santacruzian festival, who struggles to get ready after members in the community make negative comments about her appearance. Joy, Vina's supportive sister, helps her to get ready and encourages Vina to embrace herself as she is by discussing the historical context and origin of these harmful comments before leading the festivities.

Crossings

Documentary

Directed by Deann Borshay Liem

$12 | 94 minutes

Friday, October 21 at 5:30PM ET

at the Emerson Paramount Center Bright Family Screening Room

LIVE Q&A with filmmaker Deann Borshay Liem

Synopsis: In CROSSINGS, a group of international women peacemakers sets out on a risky journey across the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea, calling for an end to a 70-year war that has divided the Korean peninsula and its people. The groundbreaking mission of Women Cross DMZ is captured in an intimate cinema vérité style, framed with historic newsreels of the Korean War and punctuated with dramatic contemporary news coverage. Undeterred, Women Cross DMZ expands their global campaign to educate and advocate for a peace treaty. Thousands join worldwide as they forge a path with their Korean sisters toward peace and reconciliation.

Dawning (preceded by A Father's Son)

Narrative

Directed by Young Min Kim

$12 | 75 minutes

Friday, October 21 at 8:30PM ET

at the Emerson Paramount Center Bright Family Screening Room

Synopsis: A trauma therapist, Haejin Park, is forced to face her family's darkest past after she returns to her childhood countryside-farm to console her heartbroken younger sister. During Haejin's visit, the family farm's familiarity and haunting past begins to conjure up the trauma that she had repressed for years. A Korean-English spoken drama/psychological thriller that explores mental health, family trauma, abuse and familial responsibilities.

A Father's Son

Narrative

Directed by Patrick Chen

28 minutes

Synopsis: A story-spinoff based on author Henry Chang's crime novel series of NYPD Detective Jack Yu. Set in the early '90s when local street gangs terrorized Manhattan's Chinatown, our story centers on Jack Yu investigating the murder of a teenage boy involved in a turf war. Amidst the broad distrust and racial divide between the Chinatown community and NYPD, our lone lawman searches for a nondescript immigrant family to deliver a shattering message that also brings forth his own conflicted relationship with Jack's father.

LIVE Q&A with filmmakers Young Min Kim and Patrick Chen

BOSTON CHINATOWN ARTIVISM

Four Short Films - CENTERPIECE

$15

Saturday, October 22 at 2:00PM ET

LIVE Q&A with all four filmmakers

Arts, Community & Boston Chinatown

Documentary

Directed by Xinyan Fu

17 minutes

Synopsis: A documentary about community artists who use their platforms and projects to uplift Chinatown community voices and Asian American experiences in the Greater Boston area.

Dear Corky

Documentary

Directed by Curtis Chin

Produced by BAAFF alum Kenneth Eng

17 minutes

Synopsis: Documentary short on famed street photographer, Corky Lee, who recently passed away from COVID. Over the course of fifty years, he covered the most important events in Asian American history, including issues of hate crimes.

Convergent Waves: Boston

Experimental Art

Directed by Lenora Lee

52 minutes

Synopsis: "Convergent Waves: Boston" by Lenora Lee Dance, in collaboration with Pao Arts Center, celebrates the contributions of activists and non-profit leaders, reclaiming space by eliciting stories of community agency, resilience, and transformation. Inspired by rich narrative, this work represents a powerful call for community oriented development in the face of rapid change, making a collective statement for the preservation of community as neighborhoods across the country inhabited for generations face cultural erosion, loss of businesses, and displacement through gentrification. "Convergent Waves: Boston" highlights successes in preserving the cultural fabric and accomplishments of these communities.

Wise Words from an Old Friend

Documentary

Directed by Kenneth Eng

4 minutes

Synopsis: Our old friend Tunney Lee offers words of advice for the next generation.

In Search of Bengali Harlem

Documentary

Directed by Vivek Bald & Alaudin Ullah

$12 | 85 minutes

Saturday, October 22 at 5:30PM ET

at the Emerson Paramount Center Bright Family Screening Room

LIVE Q&A with filmmaker Vivek Bald and Alaudin Ullah

Synopsis: As a teenager in 1980s Harlem, Alaudin Ullah was swept up in the revolutionary energy of early hip-hop. He rejected his working-class Bangladeshi parents and turned his back on everything South Asian and Muslim. Now, as an actor and playwright in post-9/11 America, Alaudin wants to tell his parents' stories, but has no idea of the lives they led as Muslim immigrants of an earlier era. In Search of Bengali Harlem follows Ullah from the streets of New York City to the villages of Bangladesh to uncover the pasts of his father, Habib, and mother, Mohima. Alaudin discovers that Habib was part of a rich lost history of mid-20th century Harlem, in which Bengali Muslim men, dodging racist Asian Exclusion laws, married into New York's African American and Puerto Rican communities.

Bad Axe

CLOSING NIGHT FILM – Documentary

Directed by David Siev

$15 | 100 minutes

Sunday, October 23 at 5:30PM ET

at the Emerson Paramount Center Bright Family Screening Room

LIVE Q&A with filmmaker David Siev, and parents Chun & Rachel Siev

Synopsis: After leaving NYC for his rural hometown of Bad Axe, MI at the start of the pandemic, an Asian-American filmmaker documents his family's struggles to keep their restaurant open. As fears of the virus grow, deep generational scars dating back to the Cambodian Killing Fields unearth between the family's patriarch, Chun, and his daughter, Jaclyn. When the BLM movement takes center stage in America, the family uses their voice to speak out in their town where Trumpism runs deep. What unfolds is a real-time portrait of 2020 through the lens of this multicultural family's fight to keep their American dream alive in the face of a pandemic, Neo-Nazis, and the trauma of having survived a genocide.
